

Synopsis: Catch A Dream

History teacher Elizabeth O'Malley has managed to travel through Time from the 21st century and awakens in a barn in 1849, dressed only in the black silk negligee she was wearing when she went to bed. When Texas Ranger Miguel de Basque discovers her in his barn, he assumes she's a prostitute from nearby Fort Worth...and probably suffering from a bump on the head, given her wild story of where she's from.

Although Elizabeth is determined to find a way back home, as the months go by she finds herself more and more attracted to Miguel, even though they have different ideas of what their "relationship" might be.

However, when Elizabeth is abducted by the Commanche, Miguel realizes his feelings for her are more than just lust. He will risk everything to rescue her and bring her back home. But can he keep her in his time or will the Fates intervene once more?
