

Synopsis: Search for the Spear

An immortal knight, Lucus Ramsey has traveled through Time to retrieve an ancient Celtic spear with magical powers. Powers that could save the world from impending disaster or totally annihilate it if the evil, one-eyed god, Balor, posing as a mortal, finds it first.

A sassy, modern witch, Sara Kincaid—a thoroughly independent, 21st century woman—has no plans in sharing the medieval manuscript that holds the clue for the spear's location with anyone.

That is—until some very, very bad things start happening.

Each of them holds a secret that needs to be shared, but will they realize it in time to thwart the evil god who follows them?

