

Synopsis: Their Finest Hour

Story: Encounter With Destiny

Nadia Rajak is well aware of how much the Nazis hate her people, the Rom. Yet, when she finds a German officer wounded in the woods, she does what she must to save him—and surprises herself by liking the gentle giant with eyes as blue as summer skies in the Alps.

Derek Deitrich is grateful to the beguiling, dark-eyed Gypsy, but the patrol searching for him is not. He will have to choose whether to stay loyal to the Reich or to protect Nadia and her people at the risk of his own life.
